There was green upon the hills. And the elusive fragrance of the verdure drew us on to where the emerald virtues of youth lay embedded in its roots. Faith, hope, life, courage, inspiration were the treasures buried there.

The prize we deemed worthy of the struggle. So we stumbled on over the challenging mounds of Central's proving ground to gather the precious experience that would make us men and women—gracious, dependable, enthusiastic, cooperative, virile, Christlike.

It is because we want to share with you the memories of our four "green years" at Central that we jotted down the "up hills and down dales" that brought us to graduation day.

treasured memories of . . .

Installation Day

. . . . Central came into being as a result of the foresight, good judgment, and loving kindness of our superiors whose one objective is our scholastic and moral development. Our future happiness is their goal.

. . . . Let us repay their interest by developing sturdy characters that will not betray our ideals in later life. By continued good will, let us try to make their duties less arduous. Let us do our part to assist them in attaining their objectives, your happiness and mine.

. . . . Our welcome as useful, proficient, and valuable citizens of Reading will depend upon the use we make of our school days. People will judge us by our speech and actions. Let us conduct ourselves everywhere and always as should students of one of the finest Catholic schools in the country. Above all, let us remember we are Catholic ladies and gentlemen.

. . . . Courteous cooperation, kindly helpful consideration for each other in our daily contacts, will bring blessing to our school. Ever mindful of the bounty of Almighty God and Blessed Mother, let us frequently commend to Heaven our desires for success. May you and I, this year, write another golden chapter in the annals of Central Catholic High School.

Reverend John N. Wachter

During those four "teen" years our ideals coursed the skies. We hitched our wagons to the proverbial stars and drove on toward the dawn of maturity. But that our chariots might keep rolling, it was necessary that we have someone to face the realities of life for us; someone who would understand and support our quest.

We found that champion in Father Wachter. He and his beloved parishioners knighted our cause, spiritually and financially. Our joys and sorrows, our successes and failures they made their own.

To the Pastor of St. Paul Parish and his people we say simply, "Thank you." May they be enriched in the thought that into our education they have helped to weave the very breath of God. It was because of them that our "green" years were never "lean."

Still within the shadows of the living, thriving halls of Central we are aware of all we owe to our beloved principal. Because our stalk was green, it needed care, cultivation, pruning. Our "fumbling" time desired words of wisdom to inspire, firm principles to guide, an alert vigilance to protect. These were not wanting.

Father Allwein nurtured us from our grassroots stage when growing pains were many, until our "manly" days when vistaed hopes beckoned us to wider worlds.

It was because of our efficient principal that our years of good fellowship, of eager enterprise, of success and failure, of love and heartaches grew into the graciousness, tolerance, and understanding that we cherish now.

Themes, problems, experiments, debates came tumbling in upon us as we dug deep to unearth the treasures buried in our halls of ivy. Education at Central meant more than life in a mansion; more than wearing the velvet glove. It implied chasing the "boogie-boo" of mental darkness by the light of the student lamp, and pursuing the goblin of spiritual torpor by the light of grace.

The hourly dedication to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost brought us closer to the meaning of our search for knowledge. Though we were caught in Pythagorean theorems, Shakespeare's "sound and fury," and Chopin's interludes, we held fast to the golden rope that was fixed in the hand of the Great Teacher.

Here at Central hopes were born, ideals encouraged, characters molded to insure security—physically, intellectually, artistically, morally. All this we shall remember though we be far from our hallowed "halls of ivy."

What's in a photograph that makes students collect them till their wallets bulge? C. Janiszewski and M. Prentice exchange pictures while J. DeTurck and J. Kaufmann appraise D. Brunner's treasures.

Physics students, J. Carrigan, G. Didyoung, M. Katrinak, M. J. Grund, and M. Devine are experimenting to discover the mechanical advantage and efficiency of the inclined plane and pulleys while D. Sweeney takes data.

As a preparation for the Junior Town Meeting, G. Prendergast discusses with J. Winterhalter, P. Frank, and J. Bukowski the pros and cons of "Should 18-year-olds he drafted."

Before the wedding bells ring for Centralites, Father McGrath instructs Seniors on the 'whys' and 'wherefores' of marriage. Pictured with Father are: R. Zuchowski, M. Humma, M. Richards, E. Wink, and E. Wierzbicki.

Steno-speedsters M. Borzacchini and J. Panfile take dictation from J. Guthier while A. Wiechecki, F. Rush, P. Sharp, G. Gross, J. Gantert, and B. Glembocki transcribe at their seats.

"You're all wrong! According to the latest fashion news from Paris, they're wearing the brims up," argues R. Drexler while L. Anker, G. Didyoung and J. Bentz smile in disbelief.

Father McGrath makes his students familiar not only with the language of the Germans but also with the realia of that country. Here M. Bonk, R. Harter, J. Auchter, C. Boaman, and S. Faust enjoy Father's comments on the cuckoo clock, the stein, and other objects that he has managed to procure from across the "deep blue."

And they clean 'em, too! Dusting and brushing their typewriters is a weekly occurrence for J. Panfile, A. Eline, B. Fritz, D. Frock, P. Fleming, M. Thren, P. Sharp, L. Schnable, M. Conway, H. Macey, G. Brehm, A. Crisafulli, C. Palm, A. Herman, F. Rush, and D. Brunner.

If the seniors are caught mumbling, "C, D, E," or "Ei, Ej, Ek," it is not because they are returning to their grammar school days. No, it is filing time. And M. Humma, M. Horyczko, J. Stankiewicz, E. Eames, and J. Boaman are perfecting their technique. Future employers will know where things are.

harvest of truth.

With a feather or without a feather, a name card is a name card. But seniors are particular about the style that will bear their signature. Searching the samples for the one are: M. Katrinak, M. Bonk, G. Newmoyer, and W. Morris.

And when they got there, the stoves were bare! But D. Brunner, J. Schuler, H. Macey, M. Morganti, K. Malick, M. Humma, V. Carrigan, M. Richards, and M. Ganter are happy in spite of it all. They are examining the new stoves installed in their Home Economics department by the Consumer Gas Project.

Reading is noted for its Pennsylvania Dutch bowls. Examining a new nest of molds for sgriffito work are Ceramics students: E. Stacherski, S. Gensemer, F. Cichowicz, R. Parks, J. Spencer, and J. Orlando.

They unfurled the banner

J. Winterhalter and J. Bukowski smile proudly over an outstanding record of sixteen straight first honor cards.

Nine stalwarts: G. Kostival, G. Prendergast, P. Frank, A. Steidle, C. Turner, P. Fleming, J. Auchter, P. Kurczewski, G. Brehm. They have weathered many storms, but have come through with flags flying and sporting an impressive string of first and second honor cards.

Centralma salutes

Congratulations to E. Wink, Centralma's No. 1 backer, for collecting over four times her quota in the yearbook drive.

Earning the sincere thanks of the senior class are J. Kane, C. Rathman, C. Janiszewski, G. Prendergast who brought in enough cash to put some green in the yearbook's leaves.

Cooperation, perseverance, ambition aided M. Mulligan, M. Martino, G. Gross, M. Richards, M. Zientek, M. Lucas, who represent the seniors who overshot their goal.

Because the tangy flavor of rich green mint clung to every student that cared to plunge into the growth that Central had to offer, all were "out" to gather as much of the aromatic herb as they could in four short years.

In the "plucking of the sprigs" we found a new life. The student council discovered it in the zealous performance of their official duties; the Centralma staff, in donning their journalistic thinking caps to produce a "different" yearbook; our ever-present news hawks, in making each issue of Hillside Echoes a stellar flight into the land of journalese. So, too, with all the other activities.

It was while "on the hunt" that the Class of '52 sponsored a prom that brings back memories of the rustle of taffeta, swish of nylon net, strains of Whitey Meisky, a glistening gym floor, and the flash of an occasional set of iridescent socks and tie.

As spears of mint cast into a bowl of swirling punch, our personalities, we hope, enriched by the Christian social virtues of Central, will have their effect on the world about us.

FIELDS OF MINT

Duty comes

K. Greytok receives her representative badge from Father Allwein who is assisted by R. Adams. Looking on are the Junior and Senior Council members who have already been inducted.

The Student Council consists of: the President, Vice President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer, a senior council member selected from each senior home room, and one junior member elected by each of the junior home rooms.

While representing the student body, the council in cooperation with Father Allwein has the power to make any needed rules, regulations, or by-laws for the common good of the students. The Associate Representatives: E. Heckman, S. Young, A. Foley, E. Flemming, J. Waninger, M. Zientek, E. DelCollo, I. Gibney, B. Peffley, H. Aschenbrenner, F. Mazurkiewicz, R. Faller, K. Greytok, B. Quire, J. McCann, F. Simon pause from their duties to pose for Centralma's photographer.

Taking a brief respite from constabulary duties are Central's policemen alias representatives: D. Sobzac, C. Yoder, V. LaFata, J. Manuzak, K. Aschenbrenner, R. Arentz, P. Mills, M. Becker, C. Flemming, M. Reddington, T. Sullivan, P. Didyoung, J. Gibney, B. Hofmann, G. Kane and J. Goss.

council may pass upon such suggestions as are not provided within the constitution of the student association.

The entire membership of the school is touched in a more personal way by the House of Representatives. The House consists of two students elected from each home room at the beginning of the new school term.

It is the duty of these student representatives to help stimulate the interest and cooperation of the student body in school activities.

Seniors who direct the activities of the student body are: President G. Prendergast, Corresponding Secretary J. Winterhalter, Vice President L. Schnable, Treasurer C. Boaman, and Recording Secretary M. DePaul.

Senior Council members, A. Wiechecki, G. Kostival, and J. Auchter, relax on the porch behind the chemical laboratory.

Also taking a bit of "Bon Air" are Junior Council members: R. Yeager, D. Chelius, M. Kane, R. Gibilisco, and R. Noll. Planning social events is one of the tasks assigned to these younger members of the council.

Co-editors of Centralma, G. Smith and C. Rathman, are caught unaware as they enjoy one of the humorous incidents that are common during staff meetings.

"Time will tell," says M. J. Grund, D. Milco, and C. Krauss as they put finishing touches to the flyleaf of the '51 Centralma.

The male members of the Centralma staff, J. Kane, E. Shurilla, and G. Blanchard leave the Loring Studio after scheduling pictures for the senior section.

In an attempt to edit a "different" Centralma, we added an artist to the staff who brought with him a dash of color and originality. The theme, "Our Green Years," is to depict and carry with it the personality of our class.

With teamwork and determination the members of this staff have hoped to produce a yearbook worthy of Catholic principles and training.

Only the passing of the years will decide our success as the '51 graduates page through Centralma and recapture treasured moments.

"To err is human . . .," but these eagle-eyed proof readers, M. Mulligan, M. Zientek, E. Eames, and D. Milco disagree with the truth of the epigram.

and spreading the news

Journalism adds another job to the regular school routine of busy Seniors. Brain and teamwork combine each Thursday and Friday afternoon when, as a class, young pressmen gather ideas for publication. Trying to collect some news for an article between classes or sitting after school in an effort to count out a headline, is all in a day's work. But these endeavors are not in vain when it adds up to a super newspaper that merits All Catholic and All American honors.

Co-editors J. Bukowski and G. Prendergast correct galley sheets to insure a perfect issue of Hillside Echoes.

Standing before the bulletin board in the journalism room are G. Gross, C. Palm, C. Boaman, M. Conway, M. Martino, and R. Adams. "Ladies and gentlemen of the press" looking for new ideas in exchange papers.

Preparing copies of the school paper to be mailed to outside subscribers are P. Coldren, P. Kurczewski, and M. Lucas. Judging from their leisurely attitude, the deadline was met.

A. Wiechecki, F. Faust, J. Auchter, and A. Steidle write, type, proofread, and censor copy before it is sent to the printer.

Members of the Vocation Club, D. Neiman, C. Pezdirz, D. Sobczak, M. Frederick, A. Foley, and N. Twardowski pay a visit to the convent chapel. They recite the Rosary here once monthly. The purpose of the Club is to acquaint girls with the religious life and to inspire all members to pray fervently for good vocations.

Through the efforts of students participating in Catholic Action groups, Catholic magazines and other literature were sent to British East Africa, England, West Africa, and Uruguay during the past year. In addition, rosaries were gathered and sent to the Philippines; stamps collected for the mission chapters in Washington and Wisconsin; and baskets of food and clothing were sent to the poor.

M. Domalgaski and T. Sullivan led the school in the drive for subscriptions to the Maryknoll magazine.

On several occasions the students entertained the aged at St. Elizabeth's Home. Members of the Fatima Club joined the Blue Army and encouraged others to enlist in the Crusade of Fatima.

Highlighting this year's Catholic activity was the annual retreat held during the first three days in the week preceding Easter. Father Joachim Shultz, of the Society of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, was Retreat Master.

Zealous Catholic actionists G. Kilker, R. Vallish, S. Faust, M. Bocchino, and R. Kelley collect, weigh, and pack stamps that will be mailed to mission centers in Washington and Wisconsin.

With the accent on the South, these talented Centralites entertain the student body with their presentation of "Cotton Time." Performers for the day were: P. Lellig, W. Murphy, P. Murphy, A. Letting loose on the old raz-ma-taz is Central's original Dixieland Band. Carried away are the Lease Breakers: W. Hoffman, P. Essig, D. Sweeney, L. Burkhart, E. Stacheriski, and J. Winterhalter.

No Southern epic would be complete without the music of the immortal Stephen Collins Foster. C. Krauss sings his ever popular "Beautiful Dreamer."

Tap dancers, M. Miller, N. Davidheiser, and R. Schwartz, present a study in Terpsichorean art.

With the "Met" as their goal, young hopefuls, F. Guidara and S. Caufmann, present their version of "Without a Song."

Stepping high to the gay tempo of the Charleston are R. and S. Prentice during the "Cotton Time Assembly."

THE BOOSTERS CLUB

The Boosters Club of C.C.H.S. was founded in 1949 by Dr. Ralph Mulligan, pre-professional instructor and track coach at Central, for the purpose of furnishing aid to the school wherever help is most needed. Already the association enjoys a membership of 434 men.

In the two years of its existence the Club has secured for the school several items of equipment and has assumed the cost of the yearly athletic awards given to varsity athletes.

On the second Sunday of every month the Mothers' Club meets to discuss the social events and business "deals" that will help to step up the progress and efficiency of the school.

Out of Papa's pocket into the Mothers' Club go the greenbacks as Mrs. Stoebenau and Mrs. Auchter buy merchandise from Mrs. Welsh and Mrs. Devlin before one of the monthly get-togethers.

THE ALUMNI

A homecoming week end, Nov. 24-26, highlighted the activities of the Alumni Association this year. Festivities opened Friday night with a dance at the Manor Country Club, but were interrupted when Saturday's dedication of the School Seal was postponed indefinitely.

Sunday morning, St. Cecelia's Chapel became the scene of the special Mass for the group, at which all received Holy Communion in a body. One hundred fifty persons were in attendance at the Communion Breakfast in the Berkshire Hotel, which brought the event to a successful conclusion.

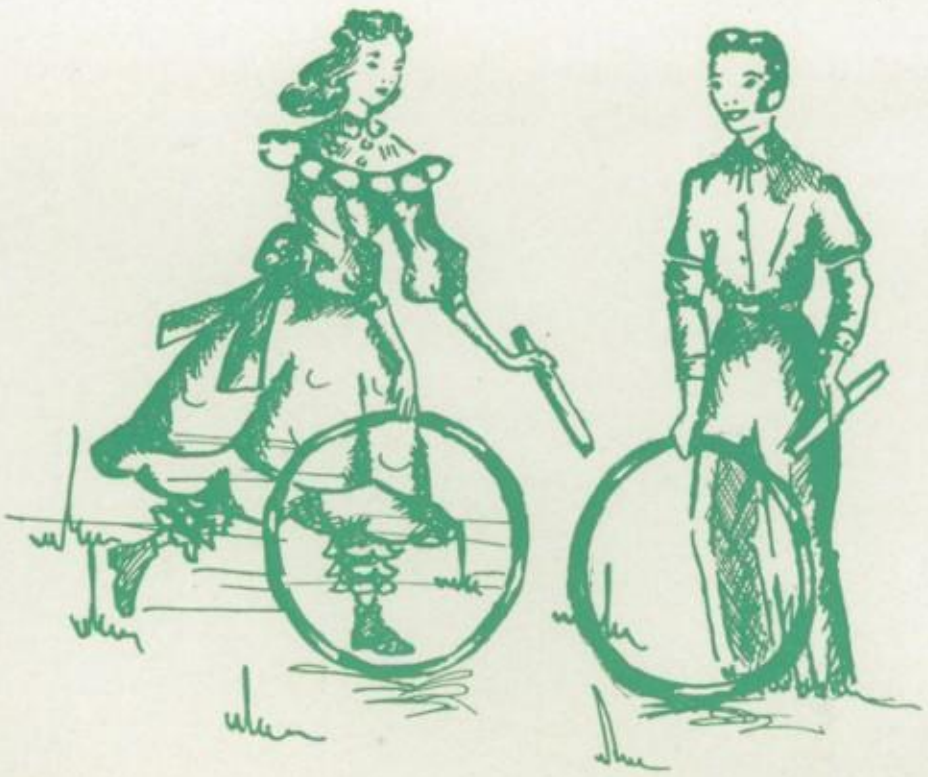
The task of "to do or not to do" was conferred upon these officers of the 1950-51 term: Mrs. Horting, Financial Secretary; Mrs. Leach, Second Vice President; Mrs. Goss, President; Mrs. Harris, First Vice President; Mrs. Aschenbrenner, Treasurer; and Mrs. Neiman, Corresponding Secretary. Mrs. Dooley is absent.

A fighting spirit, the will to win, good sportsmanship—of such are champions made. And in these "virtues of the field" lies the sense of teamwork and fair play that brought victory home to Central.

On the gridiron or on the court, rounding the bases or churning the cinder track, a greater knowledge of these intangibles flowed into the heart of each young athlete.

The P.C.I.A.A. duel proved to the quick the lessons learned all along the way. Thrills born of previous victories and pangs resultant upon former defeats returned to spark our team to co-championship and to instill into our cheering section a new sense of values.

Each sport played, every contest followed, contributed another blossom to the "crown of laurels" that Centralites will bear with pride through the bitter and sweet of after-years.



CROWNS OF LAUREL

Through thick and thin

for the Red and White

Flames danced in the breezy fall air at St. Lawrence Stadium, September 17. The numerous injuries and hard luck that had dogged the Cards during the '49 season vanished in the cinders of the burning dummy that had symbolized them.

The success of the 1950 gridders was due, no doubt, to the football "know how" of the new coaching staff and to the experience of the veterans of last year's squad. By the time the initial kickoff rolled 'round, Coach Steve Hydock and his capable assistant, Mike Plaskonis, had the boys in good shape

Sparked by the enthusiasm of its monitor, the light but fast team was not an easy mark for any opponent. Last year's eleven crossed the final stripe only twice; this season the Red and White was blanked but once.

Thanks to Hydock and his game scrappers, Centralites can once again smile when they say, "Football."

* Away Games

Central—13 York—12

Central bounced back after last year's disastrous season to defeat York, 13-12, in Steve Hydock's and the Cards' 1950 inaugural. Central's first T.D. came via a pass to Gerry Didyoung from the accurate wing of Mike DePaul. The Green and Gold lost their 12-6 lead when Carrigan evened it up by capturing Mike's pass in the end zone. DePaul converted the extra point and the Hill Roaders had Win Number One.

Central—6 Lebanon—13

The Cards bowed to Lebanon Catholic and Lady Luck 13-6. Lebanon tallied in the first and last quarters. Although Central outplayed the Blue and White, Coach Hydock's prodigees couldn't outscore them. Mike DePaul accounted for the Red Birds' lone touchdown on a quarterback sneak in the last quarter.

Central—18 Mt. Carmel—0

Sparked by "Butch" Sullivan and Mike DePaul, Central trounced Mt. Carmel, 18-0. Scoring in the first three quarters, Field General DePaul intercepted two Ram passes to set up Sullivan's 45 and 27 yard touchdown runs. Mike raced 80 yards in the third quarter to complete the rout.

First Row: Head Coach S. Hydock, J. Goss, R. Drexler, V. Suglia, M. DePaul, J. Carrigan, C. Motkowski, W. Kruszewski, C. Janiszewski, Asst. Coach M. Plaskonis. Second Row: Mgr. E. Shurilla, R. Elbert, J. Stremba, J. Costello, T. Sullivan, P. Geiger, E. Frankowiak, J. McCann, G. Didyoung, Mgr. G. Kane. Third Row: Mgr. B. Quire, R. Colesworthy, D. McCarthy, J. Daly, P. Lucas, D. Quire, J. Butto, P. Farrier, P. Adams, D. Chelius, Mgr. J. Mayernik. Fourth Row: M. Kostival, H. Lucci, M. Brady, G. Gruber, J. Mullen, R. Mountcastle, A. Szablowski, W. Orth, J. Mazza.

Central—45 Panther Valley—6

The Red Birds celebrated their return home by smashing Panther Valley, 45-6, a record-tieing score. The Cards played beautiful ball, rolling up an early lead and maintaining it with a strong defense.

Central—7 St. Matthew—20

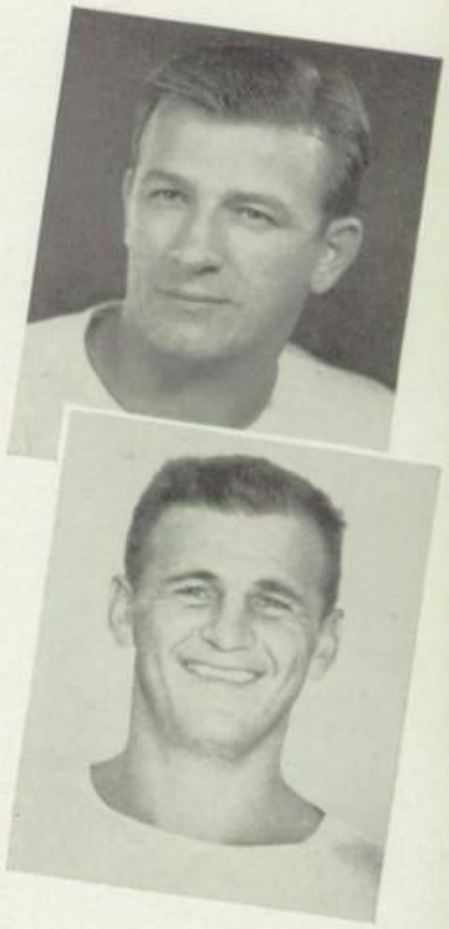
The Mirrors took advantage of a few breaks to defeat Central, 20-7. This was the Cards' second defeat of the season. Showing perfect blocking the team helped Mike scamper 58 yards to prevent a shutout.



Head Coach Steve Hydock
Asst. Coach Mike Plaskonis

"Watch that line, Diddy!" Sidestepping the white line and an opponent, G. Didyoung with the help of J. Goss picks up yardage in the Panther Valley romp.

T. Sullivan outfoxes the enemy as he shifts to the right in full gear and scores another T.D. against Panther Valley.

Central—6 Harrisburg—30

Central found Harrisburg's air and ground attack a harrowing experience as the Crusaders triumphed, 30-6. Butch Sullivan hit pay dirt in the final quarter. The defeat gave the Red and White a .500 average with 3 wins and 3 defeats.

Central—7 Lancaster—26

Lancaster kept the Cards on the skids as Central dropped its third straight before the powerful Crusaders' attack, 26-7. Once again Sullivan tabbed a touchdown to save Steve Hydock's gridders from a whitewash.

Central—0 Salesianum—26

The Hill Road eleven held the Sallies on even footing for three quarters, then the roof fell in on Central. Salesianum scored four quick T.D.'s for a 26-0 win, to blank the Cards for the first time this season.

Central—19 Delone—32

Delone demonstrated its mastery over the Cards by a 32-19 victory. Although the Hydockmen played a brilliant game, the Squires were too much for them. The game rang down the curtain for the 1950 squad who, though copping 3 out of 9 starts, could not be accused of giving up.

J. McCann and V. Suglia close in on a York player.

"T-E-A-M! Fight, team!" Cheering the boys to victory are: R. Crocona, D. Hoyer, L. Schnable, P. Didyoung, A. Troilo, P. Fordyce, P. Fierro.

* Away Games—(A) Armory

J. Larkin, lanky center, connects for two points with a push shot from the outside against Hazleton. J. Schiavo, his teammate, is checked by two members of the opposition.

Central—63 St. Matthews—45

Central opened its 1950-51 court campaign this year with a 63-45 triumph over St. Matthews at Conshohocken. DePaul led the way with 24 points.

Central—36 Southeast Catholic—51

A veteran Southeast Catholic quintet swamped the Cards 51 to 36 at the Hill Road gym. Southeast displayed plenty of razzle-dazzle while handing the Schaafmen their first setback.

Central—61 Bristol—34

Rebounding from a defeat handed to them by Southeast, the Cards turned back Bristol High 61-34. The Victors looked sharp as they steadily pulled away from the Bristol quintet to win by a 27 point margin.

Central—45 West Catholic—66

A tall and classy Burrs' combine trimmed the Cards. However, they could not hold DePaul who hit the hoops for 21 digits. Lack of experience proved the downfall of the Hill Roaders.

Central—50 Coatesville—49

Central led, trailed, and then fought from behind in the final quarter to beat the Red Devils, 50-49, in a thriller. Mike DePaul led the Cards with 24 points but it was Bob Harter's tap-in that iced the verdict.

Central—42 Lebanon Public—44

On their home court the Cedars outlasted the Central Cagers and squeezed by with a close decision over the Schaafmen. Bernie Seaman's 18 digits kept the Cards in the game.

Central—69 York Catholic—27

Central's powerhouse romped 69-27 over York for an easy win. As Coach Schaaf cleared the bench, all players saw action.

Central—56 Ridley Township—49

Central's hoopsters recorded another win with an impressive 56-49 decision over Ridley Township at the Ridley gym. The Green Raiders put up a stubborn fight but the Red and White offensive pulled away in the fourth quarter.

Central—70 Reading Catholic—40

Central continued its mastery over the Eagles with a 30-point victory. Captain Mike DePaul piloted Central's marksmen with 34 tallies. The Cards lost the services of guard Jerry Kane indefinitely when he injured his back.

Central—44 Lancaster—48

With Jerry Kane and Jim Larkin benched by injuries, the Red Birds dropped a close decision to Lancaster. Although the crippled Cards fought hard and threatened with a last quarter rally, they could not make up the deficit. Seaman headed Central's Cagers with 14 markers.

Central—54 Harrisburg—22

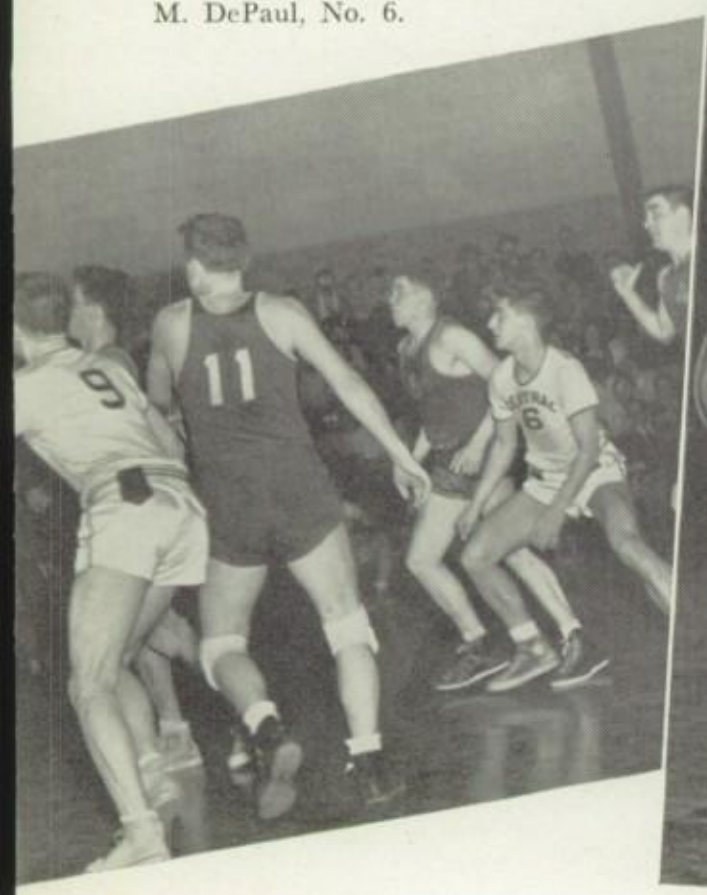
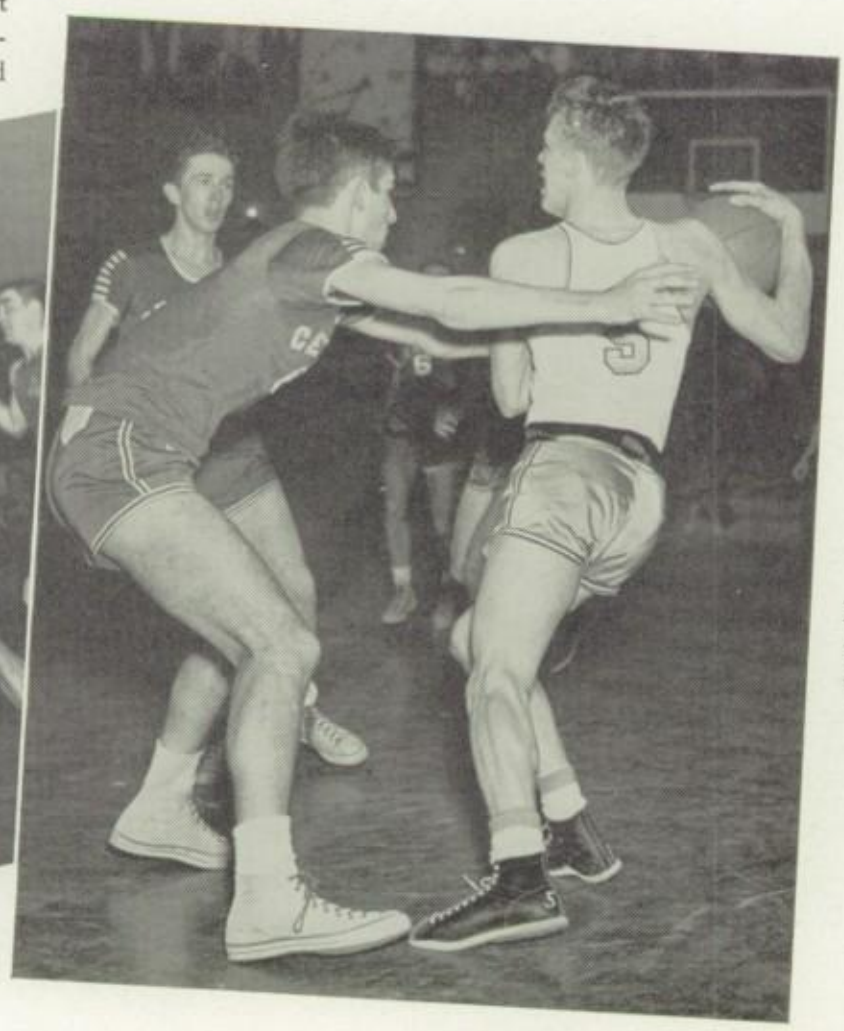
After a close first quarter the Cards turned a tight game into a 54-22 rout. Jim Larkin celebrated his return to the line-up after a week's absence and racked up 15 points.

B. Seaman, one of Central's ace sharpshooters, snags a rebound against St. Rose of Carbondale. Other Central players are R. Falin, No. 9, and M. DePaul, No. 6.





J. Schiavo, with the help of B. Seaman, checks a member of the Allentown team at the "Little Palestra" in Allentown.

The Eastern State Champs: R. Falin, R. Donohue, J. Schiavo, J. Gallagher, R. Harter, B. Seaman, J. Larkin, Capt. Mike DePaul, W. Orth, M. Reddington, G. Kane, G. Prendergast, Coach J. Schaaf, and Father Leichner, pose for the "well-wishers" before embarking on their trip to Johnstown to defend the P.C.I.A.A. title.

Central—59 Lebanon—44

Playing one of their finest game of the season the Cardinals, baffled the Central Penn League Champs, 59-44. The Red Birds looked smooth as Seaman and DePaul tallied 19 and 20 points respectively.

Central—60 Salesianum—38

Central Catholic trounced the Salesianum Sallies on the Delaware court by a score of 60-38. DePaul swished the nets for 28 points as the Cards recorded Victory number 17.

Central—72 Harrisburg—47

The capital city parochials went down in defeat as the Cardinals swamped them 72-47 at Harrisburg. Mike DePaul, scoring 29 points, led the rout in the spacious Tracey Hall.

Central—71 Perkiomen—54

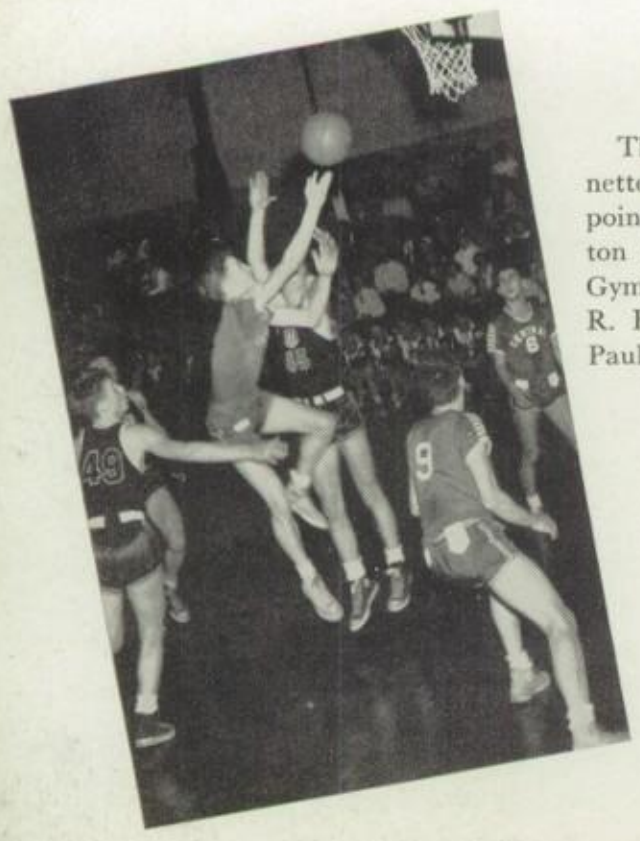
Central trimmed Perkiomen in a high scoring contest, 71-54. DePaul and company were really hot and played a brand of ball that earmarks a champion team.



This drive-in shot netted B. Seaman two points against Hazleton on the Northwest Gym. Two teammates, R. Falin and M. DePaul, look on.

Central—56 Allentown Public—54

Central's "Giant Killers" reached their pinnacle of success when they downed the 1950-51 PIAA Class A State Champions in the Little Palestra. Four points behind and with 45 seconds to go, the Schaafmen came through with two buckets by Larkin and one by DePaul to hand Allentown Public a stunning defeat.

Central—72 Brown Prep.—60

Before an overflowing crowd in the Hill Road Gym the Central quintet downed their third powerhouse in nine days when they trimmed the Brown Prep hoopsters, 72-60.

Central—60 York—57

Trailing by 10 points at the close of the third quarter the Redbirds tied the game in the final stanza and went on to win in an extra period, 60-57.

Central—82 Reading Catholic—55

Central Catholic's high-flying Cardinals ran up their highest total of the season and smothered Reading Catholic's Eagles in a runaway at the Armory, 82-55. Coach Schaaf liberally used his substitutes as the lanky combine registered Central's sixteenth straight victory over the South Fifth Street quintet.

Central—55 Hazleton—42

Central added another champion to its log of wins by defeating the 1949-'50 East Penn League Monarchs on their home floor, 55-42. Mike DePaul engineered the Cards to their tenth straight triumph by dropping 23 counters through the nets.

Central—41 Coatesville—56

The Central dribblers ran into a red hot and revenge-seeking Red Raider outfit and dropped a 56-41 decision on the latter's floor. The law of averages finally caught up with the Hill Roaders who had previously defeated Coatesville, 50-49.

Central—48 St. Matthews—46

The flu and a dead-shot St. Matthews' squad almost pulled a terrific upset in the Hill Road gym. Bernie Seaman kept the Cards in the game with 24 points, and Mike's field goal in the extra period made it Win Number 17.

Central—79 Salesianum—58

After being forced to cancel the Lancaster game, the Central Powerhouse showed that it had completely recovered from the flu by drubbing the Sallies, 79-58. Mike DePaul racked up his highest score of the season by pocketing 38 points. It was an easy victory for the Cards who were never behind.

Central—43 Hazleton—33

The Red and White made it two in a row over the Hazleton Mounts in the spacious Northwest Gym by dumping them, 43-33. Mike DePaul burned the cords for 19 points and raised his season total to 528.

Central—41 Perkiomen Prep.—32

The Cards climaxed their 1950-51 schedule by defeating the Prepsters for their first time on the East Greenville floor, 41-32. That victory gave the Red Birds an impressive record of 20 and 5 for the regular season.

PCIAA PLAYOFFS

Central—47 Allentown Central—46

Central won the Philadelphia Diocesan Championship by outfighting Allentown Central at Northwest, 47-46. Midway through the second quarter DePaul's two field goals tied the score at 18-18 and Schiavo converted from the penalty stripe to give Central a 19-18 lead—a lead which they never relinquished.

The Vikings sent chills up and down the spines of the Hill Road fans when they came within one point of tieing the game in the final minute. But DePaul froze the ball for the final fifteen seconds to give the Cards the coveted title.

Central—60 St. Rose—54

The Roses of Carbondale put up a terrific fight on the Northwest Court but the Cardinals who could not be denied, won 60-54 in an extra period. Trailing by two points, with five seconds to play in the regulation game, Mike DePaul picked up a loose ball at midcourt, took a few dribbles and fired a jump shot from the foul circle. The ball swished the cords as the final buzzer sounded and the game ended, 53-53. The Schaafmen won easily in the extra period.

J. Larkin snares another rebound from the backboard of the Lebanon visitors as B. Seaman and M. DePaul, Central's two forwards, stand by.

Jet propelled B. Seaman, J. Larkin, and an unidentified Lebanon player descend with a rebound in the Hill Road Gym.

G. Kane, sophomore sensation, grapples in vain as he attempts to snare a rebound from the Allentown backboard. R. Falin and B. Seaman, two Reading players, keep a watchful eye on the play.

R. Falin, Central guard, steals the ball in an exciting moment during the St. Rose of Carbondale game. M. DePaul, Reading captain, is in the foreground.

Junior Varsity Team: Coach Joe Schaaf, C. Nuding, P. Adams, C. Auchter, R. Gruber, J. Mazza, P. Zimmerman, Manager J. Connolly, F. Jablonski, H. Aschenbrenner, G. Kugler, T. Reedy, D. Ertz, J. Gibney, and Manager D. McKoene.

Central—60 Harrisburg—41

What the Cards had done twice during the regular season, they repeated in the Lebanon Valley Gym when they overwhelmed the Crusaders, 60-41. Bernie Seaman's 21 counters led the way as the Central Juggernaut annexed its second consecutive PCIAA Eastern State Title. Larkin contributed 14 and DePaul 10 to the victor's cause.

Central—48 Johnstown Catholic—50

Playing on the Johnstown version of a neutral floor, the Cards lost out in a thriller, 50-48, to Johnstown Catholic. The overpowering height of the Johnstown team and a strange floor placed the defending Champs on the tail end of a 26-10 score early in the game.

However, DePaul and Company refused to give up and came roaring back to narrow the gap. But time ran out on the Cards' valiant attempt to take the measure of the rangy hosts. DePaul rolled up 24 points for a new scoring record of 614 digits in one season.

Central's protest disputing the neutrality of the War Memorial Court was honored at a later executive board meeting of the P.C.I.A.A. and the Cards were named "Co-Champs." Central and Johnstown will share the 1950-51 P.C.I.A.A., Class A, State title.

Special Honors

Mike DePaul, Central's ace forward, has been elected for the second consecutive year as guard on the All State Team by the Associated Press.

J. Gibney sets his sights on the basket and lets fly while P. Adams and D. Ertz follow the path of the zipping ball.

P. Adams (13) and W. Orth (10) prepare to take a rebound that may result from G. Jugler's jump shot.

Classy

Central's Cardettes: K. Greytok, S. Wertz, J. Nelson, Coach Miss Illuzzi, M. Gantert, D. Quimby, M. Prentice, T. Poeringer, M. Gantert, J. Glaser, R. Giamotti, J. Reardon, K. Harmut, and R. Adams.

Central's female cagers opened the season with a bang, downing the Alumnae by the convincing score of 36-24.

Because the services of Rose Adams were lost when a leg injury benched her, Miss Virginia Illuzzi, was forced to revamp the line-up. "Schmitty" Gantert, Central's shooting ace, was moved into the back court and Jean Glaser took over the forward position. Joan Nelson, Dolores Quimby, and Miriam Prentice were the other "shooting" stars.

Their mastery, a new play: the figure eight with its variations, enabled the Cardinalettes to develop into a fast and powerful scoring machine. The girls proved their skill by swamping the J.C.C.'s, 58-25, an amazing score. Holding the opponents to only 25 markers were

T. Poeringer taps the ball as M. Gantert and M. E. Gantert keep their eyes on the suspended sphere.

Mary Gantert tries in vain to block a Notre Dame shot while M. E. Gantert and T. Poeringer move into action.

Managers J. Stankiewicz, C. Donaldson, and E. Leach perform their duties as time and scorekeepers on the sidelines.

the guards who displayed an effective zone style. Filling the guard positions were Mary Gantert, Rita Giamotti, Kathleen Harmut, and Shirley Wertz.

Most thrilling was the tilt with Pottstown High School, a heart-breaking 3 point loss, which edged out Central 30-33.

Considering the size of their opponents an outstanding victory took place when Miss Illuzzi's charges solved the tactics of the Villa Maria Academy sextet and defeated them for the first time by a 31-29 margin.

This upset proved the steady advancement of the Central Maidens. The feminine combine had a good season registering 9 wins against 5 losses. Central's leaping lassies had a tough schedule and even in defeat they gave a good account of themselves. A well coached bench of reserves enabled Coach Virginia Illuzzi to always have a classy sextet on the court.

The J.V.'s also were right in there with two games and two wins. The hardwood skill and sportsmanship exhibited by the Cardinalettes during the course of the season was a credit to their coach and school.

J. Nelson rushes into the picture as D. Quimby snares a wild pass.

T. Poeringer leaps for a loose ball while M. E. Gantert and Mary Gantert stand by to render assistance.

Baby Hoopsterettes: D. Neiman, L. Schower, G. Ziemba, Coach Miss Illuzzi, P. Murphy, W. Murphy, and M. Chanton.

Mulligan, T. Sullivan, M. Reddington, R. Noll, J. Daly, L. Borst, Dr. R. Mulligan, co-coach.

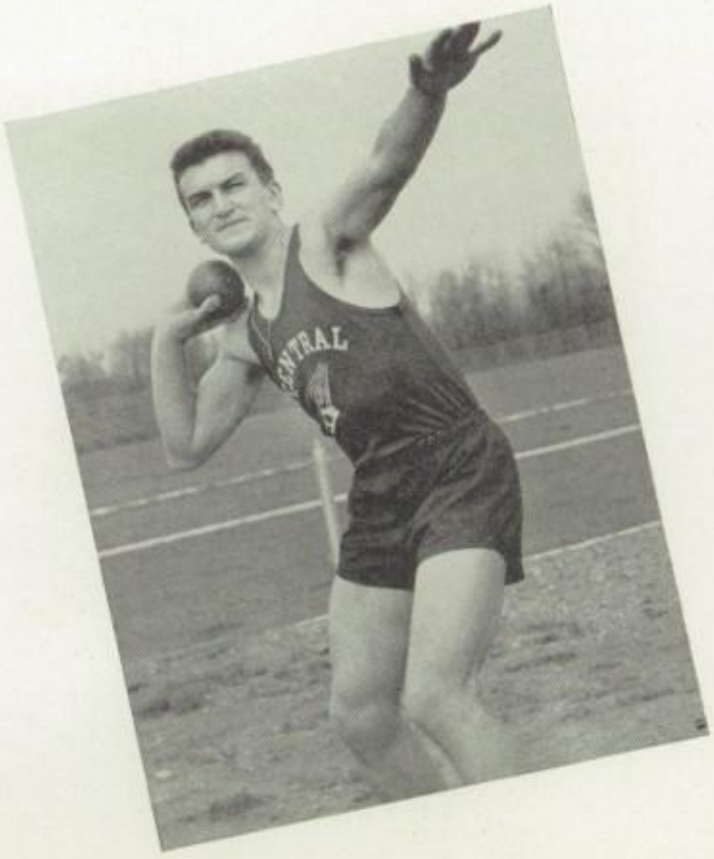
Central opened its 1950-51 track season under the able direction of Dr. Ralph Mulligan and Rev. Joseph Fricker.

Returning to the lineup are only four lettermen: Gerry Kane and Bob Kroener, distance men; Matt Reddington, pole vault expert; and Jim Carrigan, sprinter.

The thinclads, lacking experienced men, got off to a bad start losing the inaugural to St. James of Chester. However, the performances of Tom Sullivan, Chet Motkowski, Edward Shurilla, and the above mentioned speedsters definitely points to a bright future for Central's cindermen.

Father Fricker bids victory to four senior aces: C. Motkowski, M. Reddington, J. Carrigan, and E. Shurilla.

C. Motkowski hopes to break the shot-put record with a mighty heave.



Flying Feet

Getting ready to burn the cinders, Central's medley relay team receives "top notch" advice from Father Fricker and Dr. Mulligan.

Baton twirlers, J. Sucek, M. Liptak, M. Chanton, G. Romanovic, S. Gantert, M. Horyczko, are good at any season. Though they give a rousing performance at football matches, the trackmen claimed them for their page in the '51 yearbook this season.

BASEBALL

Diamond

Coach McLaughlin, Central's diamond mentor, gives moundsmen, H. Aschenbrenner, J. Butto, C. Janiszewski, and D. Ertz, instruction for improving their form.

With a host of returning ball players, Coach Joe McLaughlin's hope for a successful season are likely to be fulfilled.

Bernie Seaman, Felix Cichowicz, Mike DePaul, and Jim Rogoski make up an experienced tight infield. Patrolling the outfield are Joe Spencer, Bob Harter, Bill Orth, Jim Walters, and Eugene Frankowiak, the outstanding fly chasers. Gerard Didyoung handles the pitchers behind the plate.

Three veteran pitchers who demonstrated their wares last season are Henry Aschenbrenner, Don Ertz, and Carl Janiszewiski. Carl pitched the opener and blanked the Archmere nine, 8-0, on three hits. Judging from the inaugural, Joe McLaughlin's proteges will be hard to beat this year.

Receiving last minute advice for the opening game with Archmere Academy are seniors: F. Cichowicz, G. Didyoung, J. Spencer, R. Harter, C. Janiszewski, E. Frankowiak, M. DePaul, and B. Seaman.

CAROL RATHMAN
Co-editor

There was green upon the hills. And the elusive fragrance of the verdure drew us on to where the emerald virtues of youth lay embedded in its roots. Faith, hope, life, courage, inspiration were the treasures buried there.

The prize we deemed worthy of the struggle. So we stumbled on over the challenging mounds of Central's proving ground to gather the precious experience that would make us men and women—gracious, dependable, enthusiastic, cooperative, virile, Christlike.

It is because we want to share with you the memories of our four "green years" at Central that we jotted down the "up hills and down dales" that brought us to graduation day.
